HOME DETAILS

The home is energy-efficient, the glass windows have a Huper Optik® treatment from Germany that reduce ultraviolet rays into the home and the HVAC is an underground geothermal with five 300 ft. deep cooling and heating wells – increasing energy savings by 50 percent. Many other reclaimed materials are also incorporated inside and outside the home. The home has automated lighting with LED and low voltage for maximized energy efficiency as well as savings from automated shades. The interior and exterior walls and roof have high-efficiency insulation. The exterior has all-natural materials, stone, brick, concrete; and natural native landscaping. All wood finishes, including cabinets, use sustainable materials.
